Addenda Capital Announces the Appointment of Gregory Chrispin to its Board of Directors

Addenda Capital, (“Addenda”), a privately-owned investment management firm, is pleased to announce that Gregory Chrispin, CFA, ICD. D has joined its Board of Directors (the “Board”).

Mr. Chrispin is an investment professional with over 30 years of experience in the financial services sector, across the insurance, asset management and banking industries. A seasoned board member, he will bring extensive knowledge and experience in strategic planning, governance, operations, as well as portfolio management.

Over the course of his successful career, Mr. Chrispin has held senior positions of increasing responsibility within large financial institutions such as Desjardins Financial Security and Desjardins Global Asset Management, as well as the Canadian subsidiary of State Street Global Advisors.

“We are delighted to welcome Mr. Chrispin to our Board of Directors,” said Roger J. Beauchemin, CFA, President and Chief Executive Officer of Addenda Capital and member of the Board. “His knowledge of the cooperative sector and of every part of the financial services sector, particularly portfolio management, along with his business acumen, will make him an excellent addition to our Board. We look forward to Gregory’s contribution to the future success of Addenda.”
